EPM Live Partners with Innovative-e, Inc.

Project Management Thought Leader Dux Raymond Sy, PMP

ATLANTA — Innovative-e announces today that managing partner, Dux Raymond Sy, has partnered with EPM Live as one of EPM Live's Project Management Thought Leaders.

EPM Live CEO, Joe Larscheid says, "Dux Raymond Sy gives another voice to the industry leaders that created EPM Live. In addition to offering SharePoint consulting services through Innovative-e, Dux is on the front lines teaching SharePoint and Project Management skills through Learning Tree International. His feedback is invaluable."

"By participating as a Project Management Thought Leader for EPM Live, I am connecting with an advanced community that shares my passion for finding new ways to make project management a more effective tool within an organization," said Dux Raymond Sy, managing partner of Innovative-e. "Ultimately, a more effective project management strategy means better bottom line results for companies."

Built on a Microsoft SharePoint platform, EPM Live gives you the ability to manage all your work with one solution by leveraging what you already own, in a familiar Microsoft environment. EPM Live allows you to view project investments and monitor overall project portfolio performance and health to ensure that you are achieving your investment.

"No matter how complicated a project might be, the tools used to manage the project should be simple and efficient," said Sy. "EPM Live excels at finding effective solutions to help companies facilitate efficient collaboration without burdening the team or project managers. EPM Live makes it easy for team members to quickly accomplish routine tasks, such as reporting, without using overly complicated tools."

With over 15 years of experience in Information Technology, Sy has earned a reputation as among the leading experts in leveraging technology to enhance project management. As a thought leader in maximizing project team collaboration, he is focused on empowering organizations on how to leverage the benefits of collaborative tools with quantifiable goals such as increasing productivity and efficiency, decreasing collaboration redundancies, and streamlining electronic communications. A sought after trainer for Learning Tree International, he has developed and facilitated management and technology training to government organizations, Fortune 500 companies, non-profit institutions in the United States, Bahamas, Barbados, China, the United Kingdom and the Philippines, and regularly writes about project management, SharePoint, and globalization at MeetDux.com.
