SharePoint professionals for SharePoint professionals.*

ATLANTA — SharePoint Saturday events are popping up all over the country, and the next event will be held in Atlanta at the Microsoft Office on Sanctuary Parkway in Alpharetta, Ga. on April 18, 2009. SharePoint Saturday events are free one-day seminars developed by SharePoint professionals for SharePoint professionals. Sessions are led by industry experts who are on the leading edge of the latest SharePoint trends and topics.

"SharePoint Saturday events are the epitome of what the SharePoint community is all about—collaboration," said session speaker Dux Raymond Sy, managing partner of Innovative-e, Inc. "It's such a great sight to see that in the true spirit of collaboration, SharePoint is empowering organizations to build internal as well as external communities to improve efficiency and productivity, and the best part is, these community-driven events are free."

Dux Raymond Sy, author of SharePoint for Project Management: How to Create a Project Management Information System (PMIS) with SharePoint, will be leading a session on "Five Ways to Enhance SharePoint Site Usability." Sy is a managing partner of Innovative-e, Inc., a U.S.-based business technology consulting and services company that helps clients gain competitive advantage through high-performance strategies. With nearly 20 years of experience in the IT industry, Sy is a leading expert on project management and SharePoint solutions. He is a certified project management professional, as well as an instructor and course author for Learning Tree where he provides in-depth IT training for professionals at leading organizations around the world.
